Casey Lund

Anchor and reporter

Honolulu, Hawai‘i | (208) 484-4835 | kc.lund6@gmail.com
linkedin.com/in/caseylund | Open to relocation

Profile

Television anchor and reporter with more than 12 years of experience in Honolulu and Spokane. Brings a conversational on-air presence, strong interviewing skills and clear storytelling to live and breaking-news coverage. Experienced in daily morning television, weekend anchoring and field assignments across Hawai‘i and beyond.

Broadcast experience

Morning reporter and anchor | Hawaii News Now, KGMB and KHNL
Honolulu, Hawai‘i | April 2018 to present

- Report live for Sunrise, developing story angles, arranging interviews and delivering clear, conversational coverage under daily deadlines.
- Cover breaking news, elections, severe weather, public safety and community stories, explaining what developments mean for viewers.
- Coordinate scripts, live-shot logistics, travel and production needs with anchors, producers and photographers for local and off-island assignments.
- Report from Japan on U.S.-Japan business and community connections, coordinating international interviews and field coverage.
- Interview public officials and community members; write and adapt stories for broadcast, digital and social audiences.

Weekend anchor and morning reporter | 4 News Now, KXLY
Spokane, Washington | February 2014 to March 2018

- Anchored weekend newscasts and reported for morning television, contributing to editorial planning and live news coverage.
- Created a Children’s Miracle Network mediathon benefiting Sacred Heart Children’s Hospital.
- Trained reporters and photographers and supported social and digital engagement.

Legislative reporter | WAND-TV
Springfield, Illinois | February 2012 to February 2013

- Covered state government and legislative debates in a challenging political landscape, keeping reporting fair, accurate and focused on public impact.
- Translated complex legislation and policy decisions into clear stories about their effects on local communities.
- Built sources across political perspectives and asked direct questions to hold public officials accountable.

Additional communications experience

Provider relations and marketing coordinator | Oral Surgery Hawai‘i
August 2019 to present

- Develop provider communications, web copy and promotional materials; coordinate continuing education, community partnerships and events across O‘ahu and Hawai‘i Island.

Education and recognition

University of Idaho | B.A., Radio/TV/Digital Media Production

Michael Kirk Award, Outstanding Senior in Broadcasting • Big Brother of the Year, Big Brothers Big Sisters Inland Northwest, 2017 • Making Spokane Better Award, The Salvation Army Spokane